

Essere donna migrante: dalle sfide alle competenze

Being a Migrant Woman: from Challenges to Skills

Florence, Italy

September 9th, 2022

Programme

14:30-14:40	Welcome Address Vanna Boffo, University of Florence, Head of the FORLILPSI Department
I – Voices of migrant women (VIW)
Research Experiences – VIW Italy
14:40-15:00	Uniqueness of one's own story: towards new horizons of meaning (Migrant women's stories) Maria Rita Mancaniello, University of Florence
15:00-15:15	From challenges to solutions: some retraining strategies of migrant women in Italy Zoran Lapov, University of Florence
15:15-15:30	Migrant women in the Italian context: the challenges Antonio Raimondo Di Grigoli, University of Florence
Testimonials – VIW Italy: What challenges for migrant women in Italy?
15:30-15:50	What challenges for migrant women in Italy? Joy Agbetosa Olawumi, Professional educator and cultural-linguistic mediator, VIW Testimonial
15:50-16:10	What challenges for migrant women in Italy? Fatjona Sejko, Professional educator and cultural-linguistic mediator, VIW Network testimonial
Research Experiences – VIW International: Policy recommendations
16:10-16:30	Promoting cooperation between Higher education and Third sector for Migrant women's inclusion Mojca Frelj, Mirovni inštitut (Peace Institute, Ljubljana, Slovenia)

Coffee break

II – Human mobility in a gender perspective
Research Experiences
16:50-17:10	Girls with migration background in Tuscany: second generations telling their stories Francesca Dello Preite, University of Florence
17:10-17:30	Forms of migrant women's activism and new generations of women with migration background in Italy Tiziana Chiappelli, University of Florence
Experiences in Local intervention
17:30-17:50	Empowerment and gender-based violence response projects in migration contexts Maria Nella Lippi, Oxfam Italia Intercultura
17:50-18:10	Reception, mediation, social intervention with migrant women Cristina Baldi, Arianna Donati, Associazione Progetto Arcobaleno, Florence

